Broza and Lowe are Approved for Admission to the Roster of Mediators for Economic Aspects of Family Law Cases

Shrewsbury, New Jersey, June 23, 2008 – Lynne Broza, CPA/ABV, Director and Cynthia Lowe, CPA, Principal with the Litigation Services and Business Valuation Group at Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A., have been approved for admission to the Roster of Mediators for Economic Aspects of Family Law Cases by The Administrative Office of Courts for the State of New Jersey.

“Having worked in the divorce field for more than 20 years, mediation provides a unique opportunity to work through the issues and help the parties reach a mutually satisfactory settlement,” states Broza. “In mediation the parties understand their choices and control their own destinies.”

Ms. Broza specializes in forensic accounting, business valuations and matrimonial accounting. She has extensive experience in the discovery of hidden assets, determination of alimony and support, as well as tax issues in divorce proceedings. Ms. Broza has been engaged as an expert witness in numerous litigation cases and has testified in both New Jersey and New York. She is an active member of various organizations, including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJSCPA), NJSCPA Matrimonial Accounting Committee, Jersey Shore Collaborative Law Group, Litigation Services Committee of the Monmouth/Ocean Chapter of the NJSCPA and the New Jersey Association of Professional Mediators (NJAPM). Ms. Broza has lectured for both the NJSCPA and the Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

Ms. Lowe’s areas of expertise include marital and business dissolution, business and estate valuation, shareholder disputes, fraud, settlement negotiation and expert witness testimony for matrimonial and civil litigation matters. She provides forensic accounting, litigation support and valuation services to help attorneys make the best decision for the situation under consideration. Ms. Lowe is frequently asked to assist counsel in the resolution of matrimonial cases through mediation. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJSCPA), the NJSCPA Matrimonial Accounting Interest Group, and the New Jersey Association of Professional Mediators (NJAPM).
