Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. Becomes a Master Sponsor of the New Jersey Builders Association

Toms River, New Jersey, December 4, 2007 – Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. is pleased to announce that it has become a Master Sponsor of the New Jersey Builders Association (NJBA). The Firm has supported NJBA, as well as the Shore Builders Association of Central New Jersey (SBACNJ), for many years and is committed to working with the association for the good of the industry.

“In this time of economic downturn in the construction industry our Firm is even more dedicated to working with NJBA and its members to overcome the challenges faced in the industry today,” states William C. McNamara, CPA, CCIFP, and the Shareholder-in-Charge of the Firm’s Construction Services Group. “We recognize the importance of supporting the construction industry now when you need a friend the most. As a certified public accounting and profitability consulting firm we are in a unique position to bring financial and industry knowledge to our alliance with NJBA that should help position it for growth. Our objective is to help the association, as well as its members, achieve their goals.”

As a diversified certified public accounting firm, Cowan, Guteski & Co. is committed to being an active partner in its clients’ growth by delivering consistent exceptional service, value beyond accounting and innovative solutions. With a focus on the construction industry it provides business consulting, profitability enhancement, wealth management, valuation, forensic accounting and litigation support in addition to traditional accounting and tax services.

Cowan, Guteski & Co. is a member of CPAmerica International, Inc., one of the world’s largest networks of independent certified public accounting firms. This affiliation, along with the experience of their professionals, gives it the resources to be competitive with the “Big 4” and large regional firms, and the ability to provide personalized service focused on its clients’ financial growth.
