Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. is Named Business of the Year

Toms River, New Jersey, December 4, 2008 - Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A., one of the leading certified public accounting and consulting firms in New Jersey, was named Business of the Year by NJBiz in the 51-100 employees category. NJBiz created the Business of the Year Awards to honor companies for their outstanding contribution to the New Jersey Business Community.

The awards recognize an elite group of businesses and business leaders that have excelled and continue to have a bright future, despite today's economic climate. Each is considered an entrepreneur and leader in their respective industries.

The Business of the Year Awards are divided into six categories: Business of the Year (1-50 employees), Business of the Year (51-100 employees), Business of the Year (101 or more employees), Corporate Citizen of the Year, Emerging Business of the Year and Executive of the Year. Companies are judged on their history, growth, leadership, accomplishments, challenges and community involvement.

“Cowan, Guteski & Co. was founded in 1982 with the intention of providing services that go beyond those of traditional accounting firms,” states Donald A. Cowan, CPA, CFP® one of the founding partners of the firm. “We pride ourselves on delivering value beyond accounting, innovative solutions and consistent exceptional service. Our entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to helping our clients achieve their goals has made Cowan, Guteski & Co. the firm that it is today. Being named Business of the Year is truly an achievement and testament of our success.”
