Monahan and Cordivari Chair NJSCPA's Regional Healthcare Committee

Toms River, New Jersey, February 15, 2008 – Erin L. Monahan, CPA, MS, senior accountant, and Deborah Cordivari, supervisor, with Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A., have been appointed cochairs of the Healthcare Committee for the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants' Monmouth/Ocean Chapter.

Monahan specializes in providing audit, tax, accounting and bookkeeping services to the healthcare industry ranging from sole proprietorships to group specialty practices. She earned a bachelor of science degree summa cum laude in business administration from Green Mountain College, Vermont, and a master of science degree in accounting from Southern New Hampshire University. Monahan is also active on fundraising committees for the American Cancer Society's Relay For Life and the United Way of Ocean County. She resides in Brick, NJ.

Cordivari provides value-added services to physician practices that focus on their financial growth. She advises medical clients in areas of business entity selection, bank loan negotiations and financial reporting. She is a graduate of the University of Delaware with a bachelor of science degree in accounting with a minor in Spanish. Cordivari is a member of the Special Events Committee for the United Way of Ocean County and serves as a volunteer to the Cerebral Palsy Association of Ocean/Middlesex County. She is a resident of Lanoka Harbor, NJ.

The NJSCPA's Healthcare Committee serves certified public accountants who are working in the healthcare industry as well as those who serve clients in this area. The committee seeks to provide its members with the services and information required to expand their skills and knowledge and also provide a forum where CPAs working in the healthcare industry can meet and network with one another to exchange ideas and best practices.
